

COLUMBUS METROPOLITAN LIBRARY

LINDEN BRANCH

NAME: Linden Library Branch Artist Call-out

ORGANIZATION: Columbus Metropolitan Library (CML)

DESCRIPTION: The CML invites qualified artists to submit written Statements of Qualifications (SOQ's) for consideration to design, fabricate and deliver artwork for the new Linden library branch. This work will be installed to the exterior of the new library by "digitizing" the artwork image and transferring it to ceramic tile with an overall dimension of 30'w x 15'h. The artwork will be visible from the Cleveland Avenue side of the branch, located at 2223 Cleveland Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43211. Your original artwork will reside inside the new library branch. Artwork is to include, but not limited to the medium of, photography, oil, acrylic, or watercolor.

ELIGIBILITY: Preference will be given to all artists and artist-teams from the Linden area and surrounding communities within Franklin County.

SELECTION PROCESS: All eligible entries will be reviewed by staff at the CML to determine clarity of conceptual approach, relevance to the Linden community, evidence of ability to complete quality work based on work samples and/or references.

The art consulting firm Reese Brothers, will receive the SOQ's (submitted in .pdf format or hard copy format) at either Jim@ReeseBrothersProductions.com or mailed to 7192 Marylebury Square, New Albany, Ohio in c/o Jim Reese which will include the following elements:
