

Teen October Survey

Guide the Library: What's a program you'd like to see at the library in the spring?

I don't know (8)	A spring book section
Art programs (6)	Book talk with snacks
stem programs	Blind date with a book!
Bouncy House!	Gaming
Chess club	Drawing practice
Maybe a figure drawing class??	Music
Hair Care like Braiding and Styling Locs	Anime
Book exchange	More reading challenges
Games	pizza parties!!

Reflection Question: What's a good book that you'd like to recommend to other teens? Feel free to share the why, if you'd like!

Operation red Jericho, because it is easy to follow because the author gives your the back ground of all the characters.	Everything I Know About You by Barbara Dee
I would reccomend "The Naturals" by Jennifer Lynn Barnes. I think it was a great book and I really enjoyed it.	Books by Alice Oseman
Ground Zero	Caravel by Stephanie Garber
Global Warming	A Great and Terrible Beauty by Libba Bray
Front Desk Series	IDK (4)
How to be an Effective Teen	my favorite book right now is a court of thorns and roses
Every last word	We Are Okay, by Nina Lacour
All the Bad Apples. It's pretty heavy, but it's a great book.	Alanna The First Adventure
Strange & Unexplained Happenings: When Nature Breaks The Laws of Science.	black butler
Rich Dad, Poor Dad. It touches on classism, racism, and everyday situations.	one piece
Shatter me	Almost American Girl
Any James Patterson book. An amazing author that has multiple genres	The hunger games, Harry Potter or Percy Jackson, I just feel that every teen should read those classics
KOTLC series	The Blackbird Girls by Anne Blackman
School for Good and Evil series

Scan below to take the next Teen Survey on columbuslibrary.org/teens.

Just for Fun: What's your favorite kind of candy?

Scan below to take the next Teen Survey on columbuslibrary.org/teens.

